

CROSSDALE

Friday 1st May 2020

To all our wonderful Crossdale and Keyworth Primary children,

Although the sunshine has been hiding from us this week, we hope that you have all been able to enjoy some inside fun, learning and playing together. 😊

As we have been remembering and showing support for our NHS Superheroes, it is nearly time for us to remember some of our heroes from the past. On Friday 8th of May, it is 75 years since victory was declared in Europe after the second World War. To find out more about this event, check out the PowerPoint attached to this blog.

Next Friday, to celebrate this historic occasion, the Keyworth community are holding a special 'Stay at home' street party. Why not make some decorations for your home and have a family picnic in your living room or garden? To help you have a super fun day, we have attached some decorations for you to design and lots of lovely activities for you to enjoy. Can you crack the Morse Code or make your own ration book?

You are all doing so well and playing such an important part in keeping everyone safe. We know it is hard (your teachers and grown ups are finding it hard too) but it won't be forever and in years to come, you will be able to say 'I played my part in that little bit of history.' Keep smiling, we miss you!

Sending lots of love to you and your family, stay safe and be kind!
