

Daniel and the Lion's Den

Can you cut out each scene and stick them in the correct order? Check you have the story set out properly before you stick it down.

From this day forth,
every man, woman
and child is to pray
to the God that
Daniel serves.
He is the only living God, and his Kingdom
will never end.
He saved Daniel!
This is by order of King Darius.

King Darius issued a new decree.

The governors told the king,
and the king had no choice but to have
Daniel arrested.

The king was so impressed with
Daniel that he decided to put him
in charge of the whole kingdom.

Daniel was very hardworking and was better than anyone else. He prayed to his God every day.

So they came up with a plan. They made a new law which stopped
everyone praying to God.

Darius was the king of Babylon.
He appointed governors to help him rule and put Daniel in charge
of the governors.

Daniel and the Lion's Den Answers

Darius was the king of Babylon. He appointed governors to help him rule and put Daniel in charge of the governors.

Daniel was very hardworking and was better than anyone else. He prayed to his God every day.

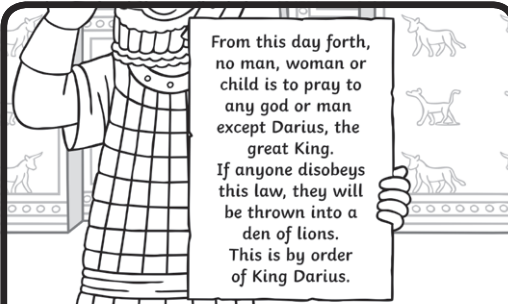

The king was so impressed with Daniel that he decided to put him in charge of the whole kingdom.

The governors were jealous of Daniel and tried to find fault with him, but they found nothing wrong.

So they came up with a plan. They made a new law which stopped everyone praying to God.

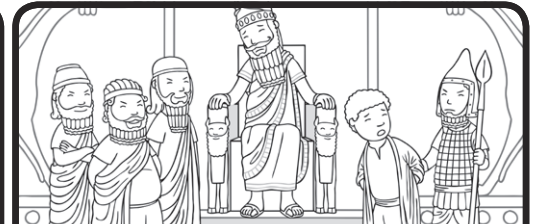

This was the new law.

From this day forth, no man, woman or child is to pray to any god or man except Darius, the great King. If anyone disobeys this law, they will be thrown into a den of lions. This is by order of King Darius.

Daniel heard the king's decree, but the next day he still went to the window to pray to his God. The governors watched him.

The governors told the king, and the king had no choice but to have Daniel arrested.

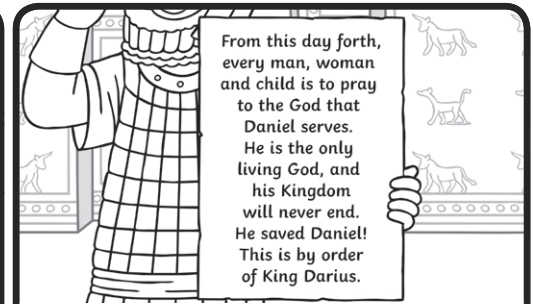

Daniel was thrown into the lion pit.

The next morning the King and the governors went to the den. To the King's joy, Daniel was alive. God had protected him from the lions.

The king realised he had been tricked by the governors so he threw them into the den. They were all eaten.

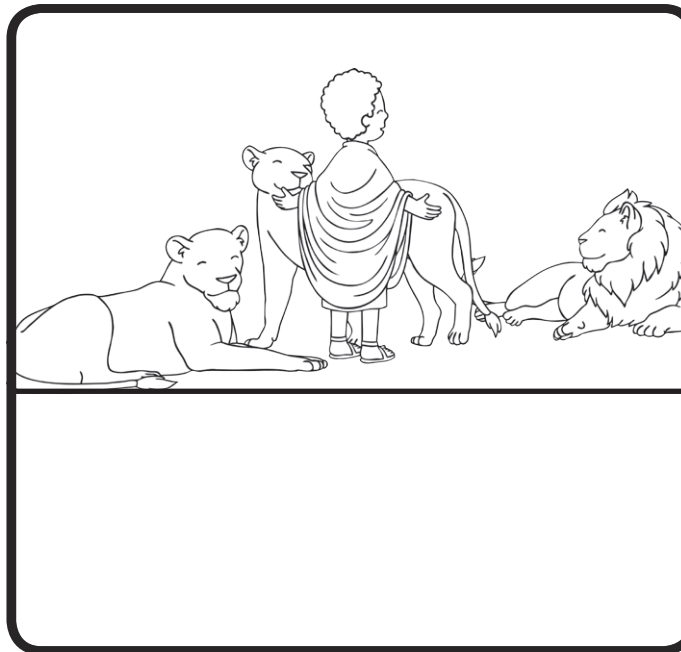

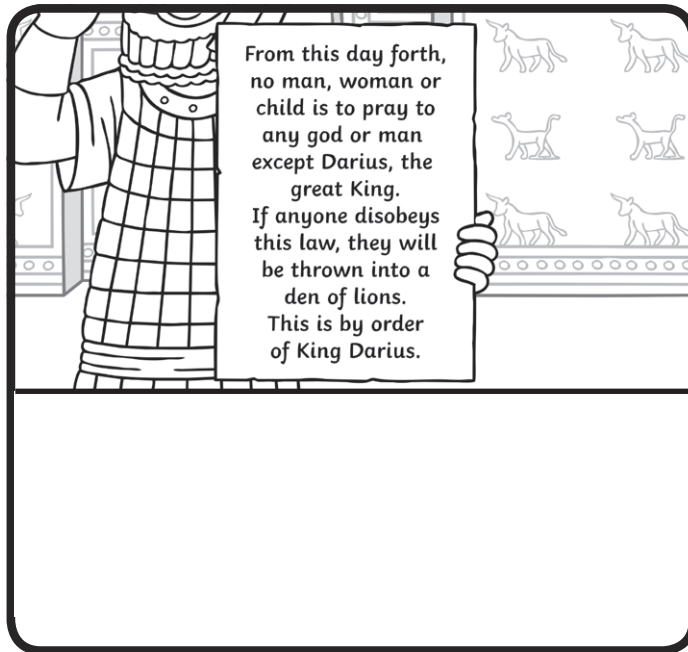

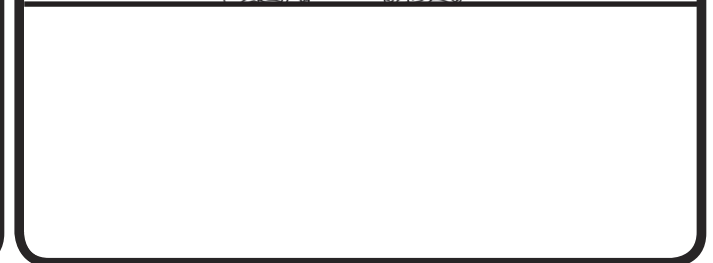

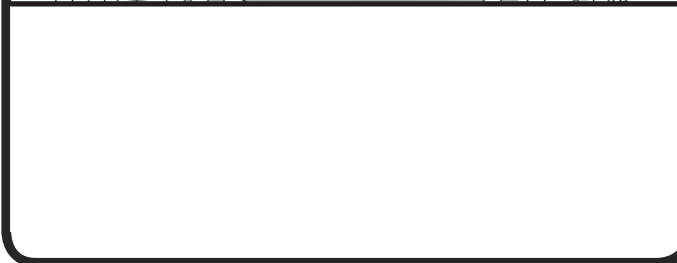

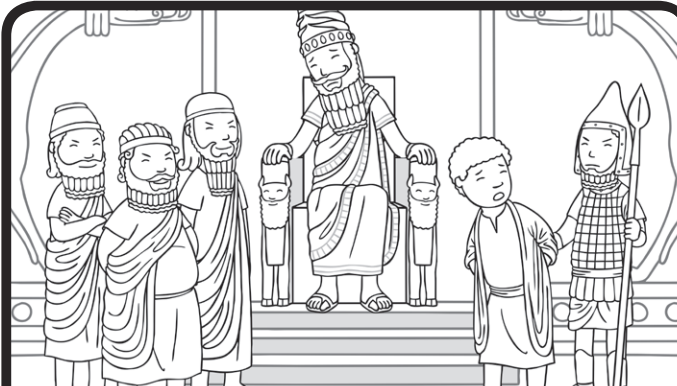

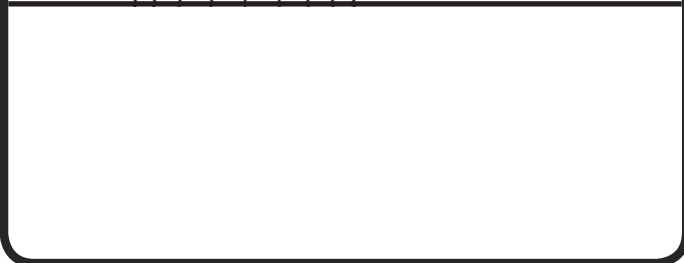

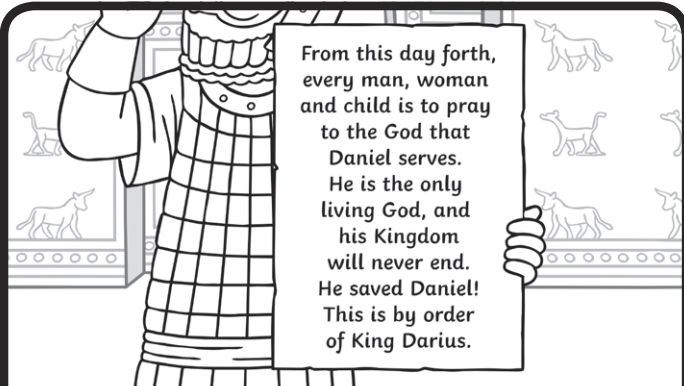

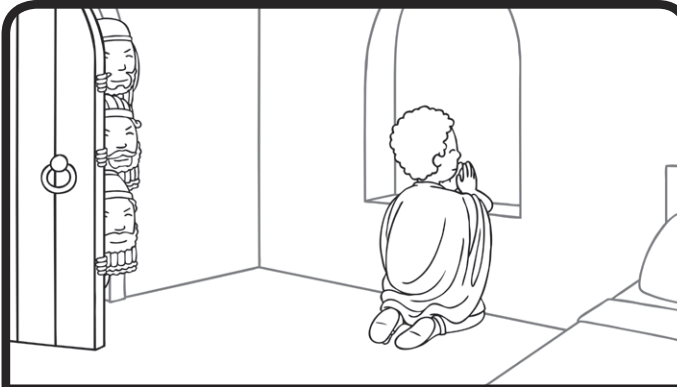

King Darius issued a new decree.

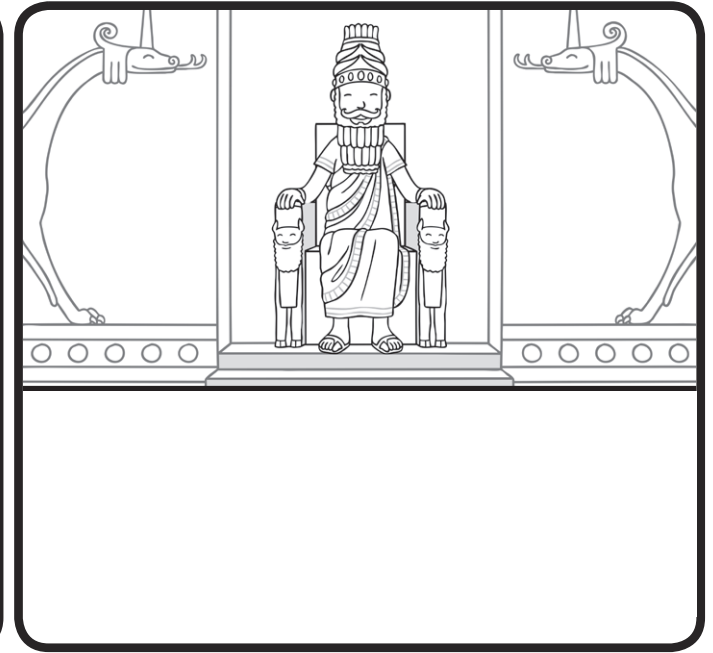

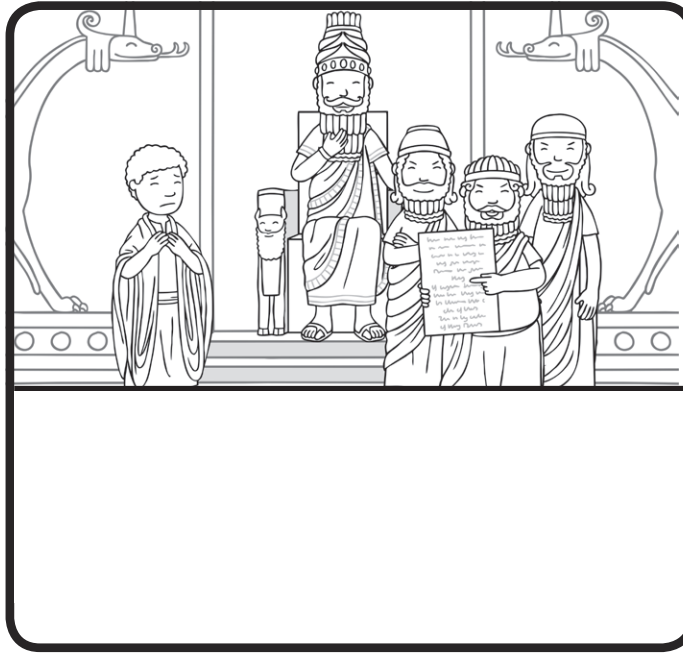

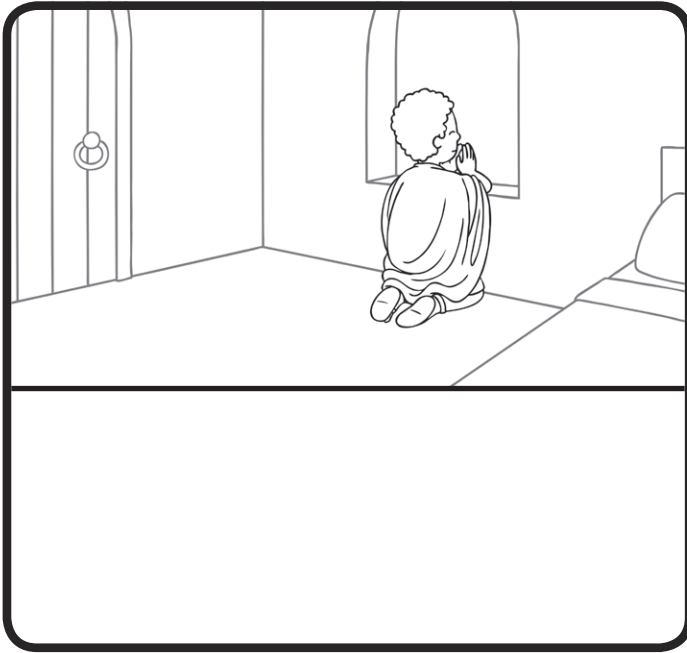

From this day forth, every man, woman and child is to pray to the God that Daniel serves. He is the only living God, and his Kingdom will never end. He saved Daniel! This is by order of King Darius.

Daniel and the Lion's Den

Can you match the text to the pictures and stick them in the correct order? Check you have the story set out properly before you stick it down.

So they came up with a plan. They made a new law which stopped everyone praying to God.	The king was so impressed with Daniel that he decided to put him in charge of the whole kingdom.	The next morning the King and the governors went to the den. To the King's joy, Daniel was alive. God had protected him from the lions.
The governors told the king, and the king had no choice but to have Daniel arrested.	King Darius issued a new decree.	Daniel was thrown into the lion pit.
This was the new law.	The king realised he had been tricked by the governors so he threw them into the den. They were all eaten.	Darius was the king of Babylon. He appointed governors to help him rule and put Daniel in charge of the governors.
The governors were jealous of Daniel and tried to find fault with him, but they found nothing wrong.	Daniel was very hardworking and was better than anyone else. He prayed to his God every day.	Daniel heard the king's decree, but the next day he still went to the window to pray to his God. The governors watched him.

Daniel and the Lion's Den Answers

Darius was the king of Babylon. He appointed governors to help him rule and put Daniel in charge of the governors.

Daniel was very hardworking and was better than anyone else. He prayed to his God every day.

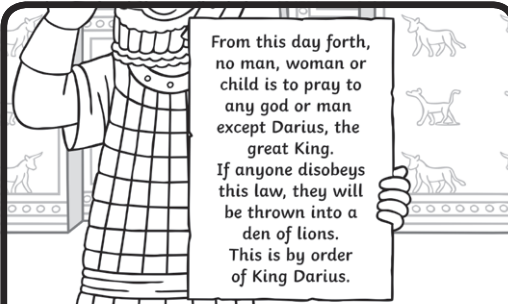

The king was so impressed with Daniel that he decided to put him in charge of the whole kingdom.

The governors were jealous of Daniel and tried to find fault with him, but they found nothing wrong.

So they came up with a plan. They made a new law which stopped everyone praying to God.

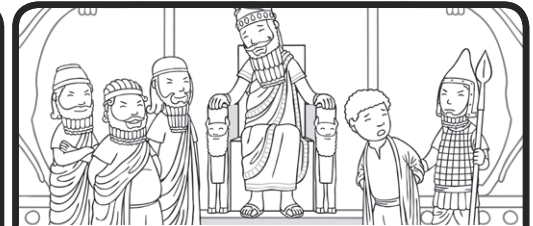

This was the new law.

From this day forth, no man, woman or child is to pray to any god or man except Darius, the great King. If anyone disobeys this law, they will be thrown into a den of lions. This is by order of King Darius.

Daniel heard the king's decree, but the next day he still went to the window to pray to his God. The governors watched him.

The governors told the king, and the king had no choice but to have Daniel arrested.

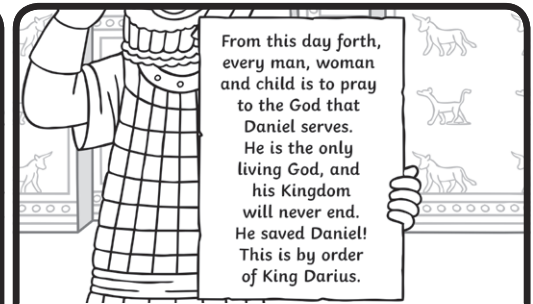

Daniel was thrown into the lion pit.

The next morning the King and the governors went to the den. To the King's joy, Daniel was alive. God had protected him from the lions.

The king realised he had been tricked by the governors so he threw them into the den. They were all eaten.

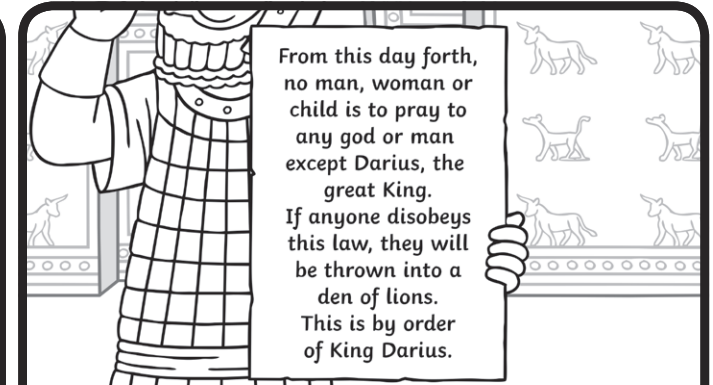

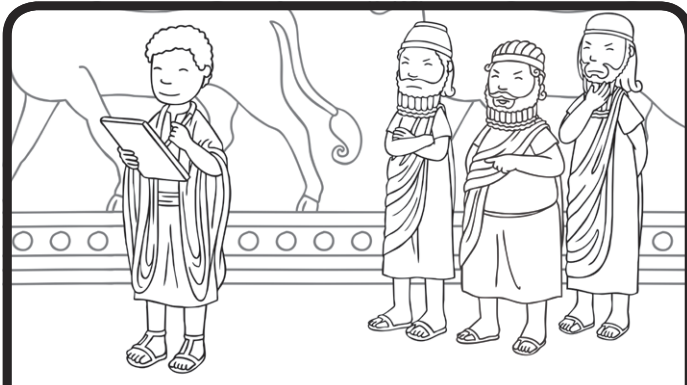

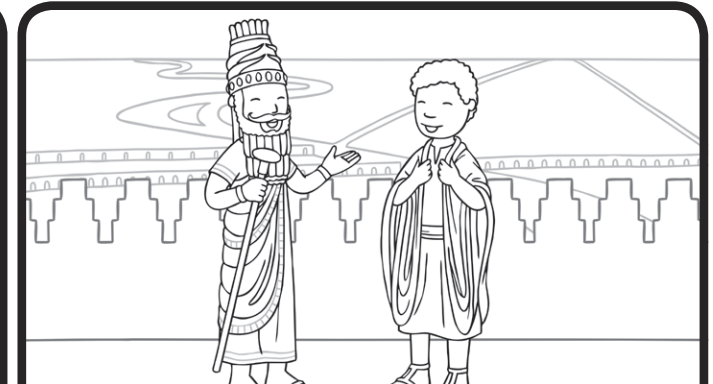

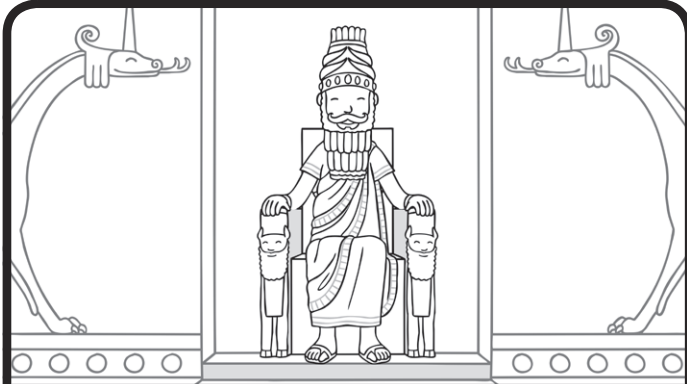

King Darius issued a new decree.

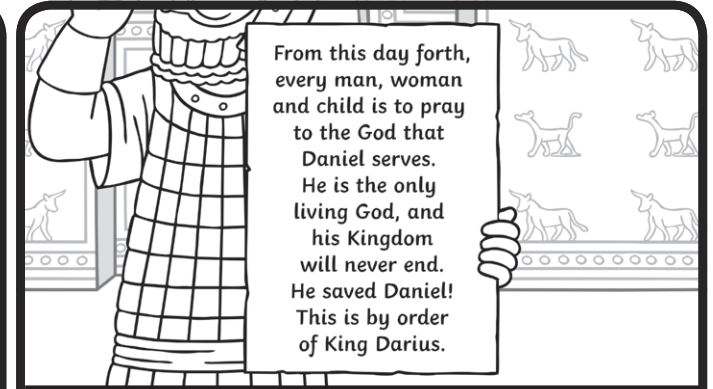

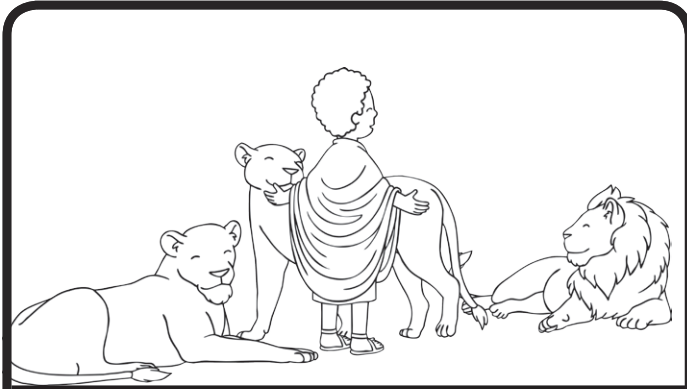

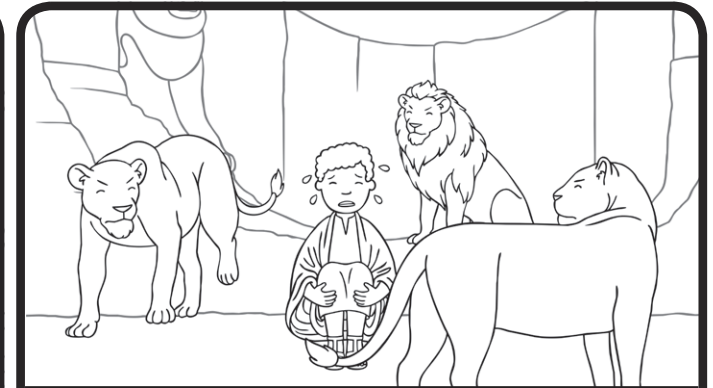

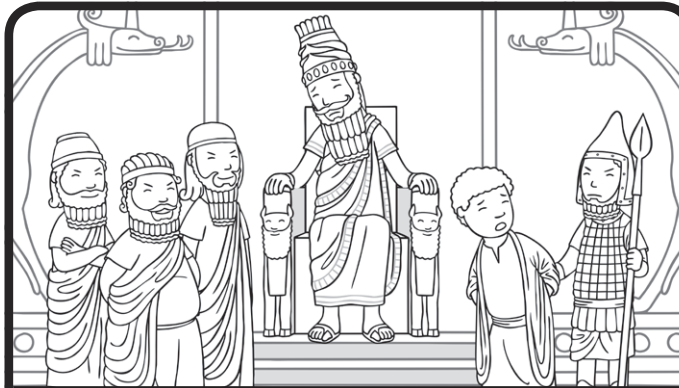

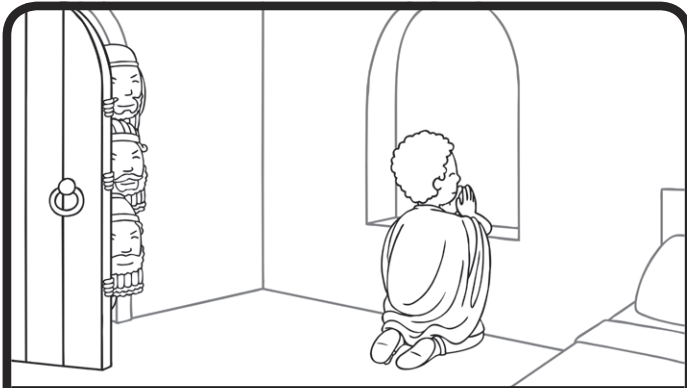

From this day forth, every man, woman and child is to pray to the God that Daniel serves. He is the only living God, and his Kingdom will never end. He saved Daniel! This is by order of King Darius.

Daniel and the Lion's Den

Can you write a short description of what happens at each stage of the story?

Daniel and the Lion's Den Answers

Darius was the king of Babylon. He appointed governors to help him rule and put Daniel in charge of the governors.

Daniel was very hardworking and was better than anyone else. He prayed to his God every day.

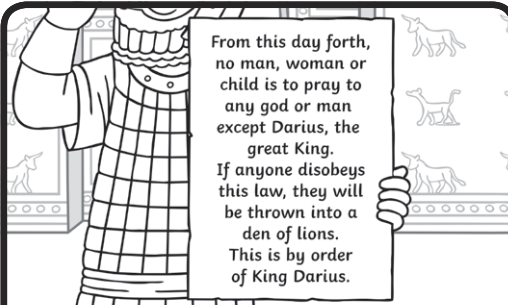

The king was so impressed with Daniel that he decided to put him in charge of the whole kingdom.

The governors were jealous of Daniel and tried to find fault with him, but they found nothing wrong.

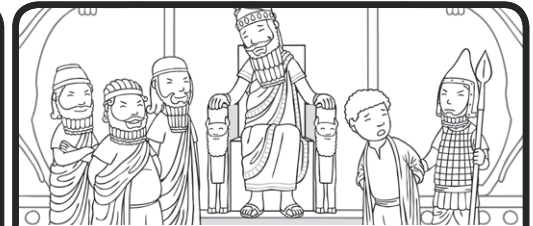

So they came up with a plan. They made a new law which stopped everyone praying to God.

This was the new law.

Daniel heard the king's decree, but the next day he still went to the window to pray to his God. The governors watched him.

The governors told the king, and the king had no choice but to have Daniel arrested.

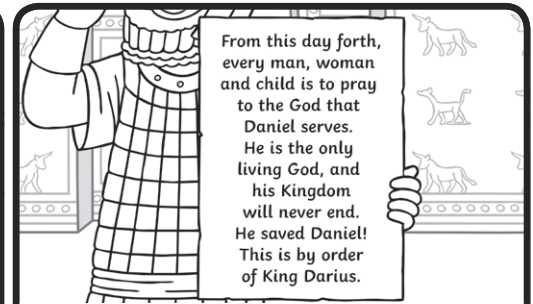

Daniel was thrown into the lion pit.

The next morning the King and the governors went to the den. To the King's joy, Daniel was alive. God had protected him from the lions.

The king realised he had been tricked by the governors so he threw them into the den. They were all eaten.

King Darius issued a new decree.