

How and why has transport changes over time?

How did people travel in the past?

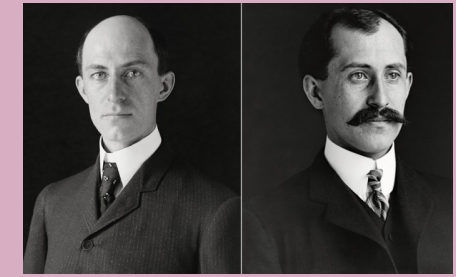

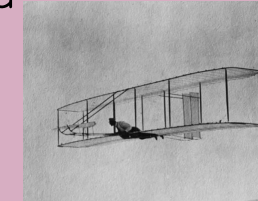

How do people travel today?

What did the Wright Brothers invent?

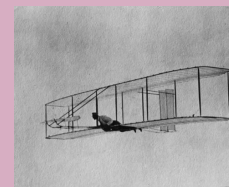

The Wright Brothers invented:

- the first aircraft to carry humans into the air
- the first powered aircraft called The Wright Flyer

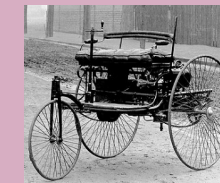

Wilbur Orville

How have planes changed over time?

- They are quicker and safer
- They have big engines
- They can fit more passengers
- They can travel further and fly for longer

How have cars changed over time?

- They are quicker and safer
- They have 4 wheels, doors and windows.
- They are made of stronger materials
- Some new cars are electric

Vocabulary

Definition

inventor	A person who creates something new.
invention	A new thing which has been created.
past	Something that has already happened.
present day	Something that is happening now.
pilot	Someone who flies an aircraft.
engine	A machine of moving parts which makes something move.
vehicle	A thing used to transport people or things EG: a car, train aeroplane.
aircraft	A mode of transport which can fly EG: aeroplane.

How did the invention of airtravel change the world?

- allowed people to travel and explore the world
- made long-distance and overseas travel quick, cheap and easy.
- allowed countries around the world to share food and supplies.