I am a warrior - Romans

753 BC	55—54 BC	27 BC	AD 43	AD 60	AD 401-410
Rome is founded. Romulus becomes the first king.	Julius Caesar tries to invade Britain twice but is beaten by the Britons.	Rome becomes an empire. Augustus Caesar becomes Rome's first emperor.	The Romans invade Britain under the orders of Emperor Claudius.	Boudicca leads the Iceni tribe in a revolt against the Romans.	Roman soldiers leave Britain to protect other parts of the Roman empire.

Vocabulary	Definition
Britannia	The Roman name for Britain.
Celts	People living in Britain.
Empire	A group of countries that are ruled by one leader, King or country.
Invade	To enter a country with force.
Emperor	The leader of an empire.
Conquer	To take control of another country and its people after a battle.
Battle	A fight between two armed forces during a war.
Citizen	A person with all the rights and protections of a nation or land. In the Roman Empire, only citizens were able to vote.
Roman Empire	The name used for the land that was controlled by the Romans, including large parts of Europe plus parts of North Africa and West Asia
Chariot	A chariot is a type of cart driven by a charioteer, usually using horses to provide rapid motive power.

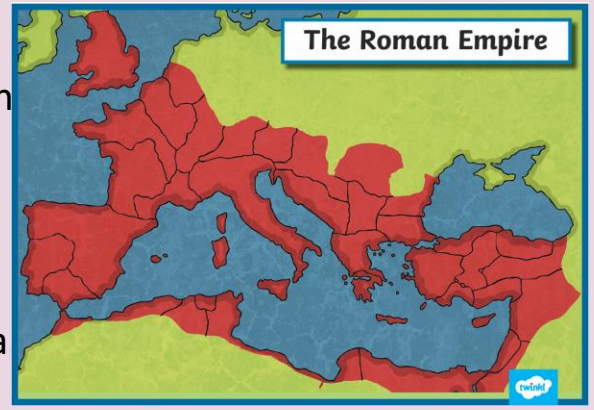

Who was Julius Caesar?

Julius Caesar was a Roman Emperor who helped Rome become more powerful through his victories in battle.
In 46 BC, declared himself the ruler of the Romans.

Who were the Romans?

- The Romans lived in Italy, and their main city was Rome, which began around 753 BC.
- The Romans built a powerful empire that spread across Europe and parts of North Africa

How did the Romans invasions shape Britain?

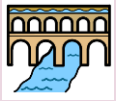

They built many roads and some of these route are still used today (A46).

They built stone forts and walls for defenses such as Hadrian's wall.

Roman baths and aqueducts made by stone are still standing.

They developed a drainage and sewerage system.

The Romans brought in coins to buy things.

The calendar we use today is based on the Roman calendar.

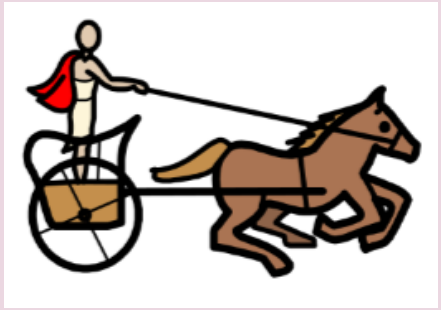

The numerals developed by the Romans enabled everyone to count in the same

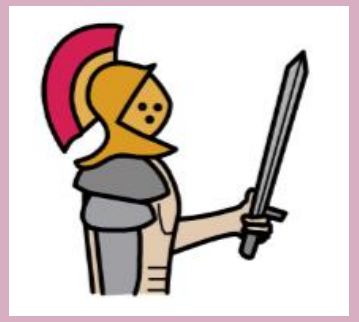

What sporting events were poplar in Ancient Rome?

Chariot racing

Gladiators

Olympic games

How and why did the romans invade Britain?

55 BC - First Attempt

Julius Caesar tried to invade Britain, but the Celtic tribes fought back and the Romans returned home.

1

54 BC - Second Attempt

Julius Caesar came back with a larger army and won some battles, but he did not stay in Britain.

2

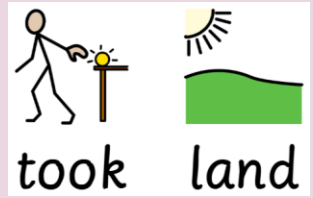

AD 43 - Successful Invasion

Emperor Claudius sent a large Roman army to Britain. The Romans successfully invaded and began to control much of the country.

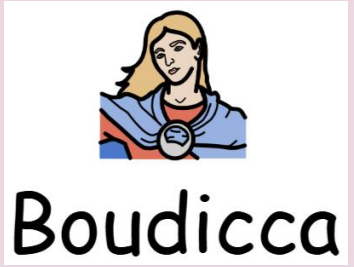

Who rebelled against the romans?

- Boudicca, the leader of the Iceni tribe, rebelled against the Romans because they took her tribe's land after King Prasutagus died.

- Boudicca led the Iceni people against the Romans, but her army was defeated at the Battle of Watling Street.

I am a warrior - Romans

753 BC	55—54 BC	27 BC	AD 43	AD 60	AD 401-410
Rome is founded. Romulus becomes the first king.	Julius Caesar tries to invade Britain twice but is beaten by the Britons.	Rome becomes an empire. Augustus Caesar becomes Rome's first emperor.	The Romans invade Britain under the orders of Emperor Claudius.	Boudicca leads the Iceni tribe in a revolt against the Romans.	Roman soldiers leave Britain to protect other parts of the Roman empire.

Vocabulary	Definition
Britannia	The Roman name for Britain.
Celts	People living in Britain.
Empire	A group of countries that are ruled by one leader, King or country.
Invade	To enter a country with force.
Emperor	The leader of an empire.
Conquer	To take control of another country and its people after a battle.
Battle	A fight between two armed forces during a war.
Citizen	A person with all the rights and protections of a nation or land. In the Roman Empire, only citizens were able to vote.
Roman Empire	The name used for the land that was controlled by the Romans, including large parts of Europe plus parts of North Africa and West Asia
Chariot	A chariot is a type of cart driven by a charioteer, usually using horses to provide rapid motive power.

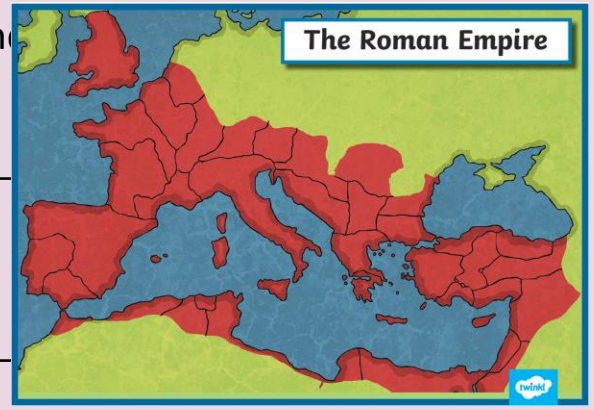

Who was Julius Caesar?

_____ _____ was a Roman _____ who helped Rome become more _____ through his _____ in _____. In _____ _____, declared himself the _____ of the Romans.

Who were the Romans?

- The Romans lived in _____, an their main city was _____, which began around _____
- The Romans built a powerful _____ that spread across _____ and parts of _____

How did the Romans invasions shape Britain?

They built many _____ and some of these _____ are still used today (A46).

They built stone _____ and _____ for defens such as Hadrian's wall.

Roman _____ and _____ made by stone are still standing.

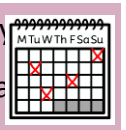

They developed a _____ and _____system.

The Romans brought in _____ to buy things.

The calendar we use today is _____ on the Roma calendar.

The _____ develope by the Romans enabled everyone to _____ in the same

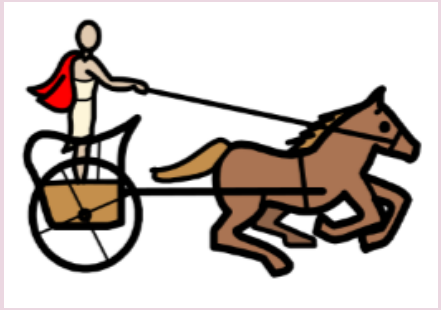

What sporting events were poplar in Ancient Rome?

_____

_____

_____

___

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

___

How and why did the romans invade Britain?

55 BC - First Attempt

_____ _____ tried to _____ Britain, but the _____ tribes fought back and the Romans returned _____.

54 BC - Second Attempt

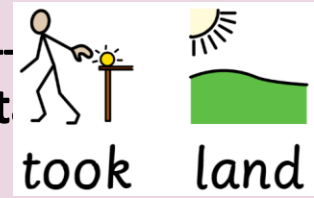

_____ _____ came back with a _____ army and won some _____ but he did not _____ in Britain.

AD 43 - Successful Invasion

_____ Claudius sent a _____ Roman _____ to Britain. The Romans _____ _____ invaded and began to _____ much of

Who rebelled against the romans?

- _____ , the _____ of the Iceni tribe, they rebelled _____ the Romans because took her tribe's _____ Prasut

- _____ led the Iceni people _____ the Roma _____ was _____ the _____ ling Stree

